TERM OF REFERENCE

Impact Circle in Universitas Tanjungpura

"Worklife 101: What to prepare as a fresh graduate"

A. Impact Circle in Universitas Tanjungpura

Impact circle is a community form of AIESEC in Indonesia as a platform for youth, media, and communities in Indonesia to communicate our concern well, also develop our circle to be the best version of themselves through sessions and sharings. We do this as a platform for youth, communities and the media to do discussion and communicating certain concern related to the Sustainable Development Goals with Walk4SGDs as the following activities and call to action.

The purpose of Impact Circle are to discuss and sharing about current situation faced by youths especially fresh graduate where job vacancy competition rate is that keeps getting higher and more competitive. In addition, this pandemic situation also play a big role in job vacancy. We are hoping to share them some perspective on how to tackle this situation by becoming a competent youths that understand about their potential and what can they do about it.

The objective of the speakers to this virtual talk are:

1. Give point of view as an specialist in human resource field in seeing current job competition and share some experience about worklife.
2. Giving potential platform and ideas to youths and fresh graduates on how to tackle this issue.

B. Speaker Profile

By the explanation that has been stated in the previous chapter, we found out Mr. Timothy Ethelbert is suitable to be our speaker by the experience in terms of human resources and talent hiring. As Mr. Timothy Ethelbert is also currently enrolled as a Hiring Manager at Paper.id.

We want Mr. Timothy Ethelbert to share some perspective on how to tackle this issue as youths and fresh graduates. Youth are expected to be inspired by his journey, achievements and ways to achieve the goals. We also want youths to know how to becoming a competent youths that understand about their potential and what can they do about it.

By the values mentioned before, are really needed for youth to uncover themselves from opportunities they might miss and to help them become more aware of their hidden potential and redevelop themselves.

By the expectation that we already put into, AIESEC in UNTAN hopes that Mr. Timothy Ethelbert will willingly take time to participate and share the impressive knowledge with AIESEC in UNTAN and Indonesian youth at our Impact Circle.
